Farewell Ceremony

Dr. Md. Ahasan Ali, Associate Professor of Bengali

Date :- 31.07.2024

On July 31st, 2024, our college bid a heartfelt farewell to Dr. Md. Ahasan Ali, Associate Professor of Bengali, as he retired from his distinguished career in academia. The event was marked by a deep sense of gratitude and admiration for a scholar who has dedicated decades to the teaching and nurturing of students in the Bengali department.

Dr. Ali joined the college as a young faculty member and has since become a cornerstone of the Bengali department. Known for his profound knowledge of Bengali literature and his ability to inspire students, Dr. Ali's teaching style has left an indelible mark on generations of learners. His colleagues and students fondly remember his passionate lectures, his unwavering commitment to academic excellence, and his kind and approachable demeanour.

The farewell ceremony began with a speech by the Principal, who praised Dr. Ali's contributions to the college. He highlighted how Dr. Ali not only enriched the academic environment but also played a pivotal role in various cultural and literary activities within the college. His mentorship extended beyond the classroom, guiding students in their academic pursuits and personal development.

Several faculty members and students also shared their memories and experiences with Dr. Ali. They spoke of his dedication, his deep love for the Bengali language and literature, and the personal impact he had on their lives. The event was filled with emotions as many expressed their heartfelt wishes for his future.

In his farewell speech, Dr. Ali expressed his gratitude to the college community for their support throughout his career. He reflected on his journey, acknowledging the joy and fulfilment he found in teaching and interacting with students. He also encouraged the younger faculty members to continue fostering a love for literature and to uphold the values of education.

As the ceremony concluded, Dr. Md. Ahasan Ali was presented with a token of appreciation from the college, symbolizing the respect and affection the college community holds for him. His retirement marks the end of an era, but his legacy will continue to inspire and guide the department for years to come.
