Farewell Ceremony

Smt. Mahua Maulik, Associate Professor, Department of History

Date: 31.01.2025

As Sudhiranjan Lahiri Mahavidyalaya bids farewell to Smt. Mahua Maulik, Associate Professor in the Department of History, on 31st January 2025, we take a moment to reflect on her remarkable journey and invaluable contributions to our institution.

Smt. Mahua Maulik joined the college with a deep passion for teaching and an unwavering commitment to the discipline of history. Over the years, she has played an instrumental role in shaping the Department of History, mentoring countless students with her insightful lectures and fostering an environment of academic excellence. Her scholarly approach and meticulous research have inspired generations of learners, many of whom have gone on to make significant strides in the field of history and allied disciplines.

Beyond her role as a dedicated educator, Smt. Maulik has been actively involved in the overall development of the institution. She has contributed to the curriculum enhancement, research initiatives, and co-curricular activities, ensuring that the department maintains high academic standards. Her guidance in organizing seminars, student workshops, and historical excursions has enriched the learning experience of students.

Her commitment extended beyond academics, as she took part in various administrative responsibilities, contributing to institutional policy-making, faculty development, and student welfare programs. Her active participation in college events and governance has left a lasting impact on the institution's growth and academic culture.

As she steps into retirement, Sudhiranjan Lahiri Mahavidyalaya expresses heartfelt gratitude for her years of dedicated service. Her wisdom, mentorship, and kindness will be deeply missed, but her legacy will continue to inspire future generations of students and educators.

We wish Smt. Mahua Maulik a fulfilling and joyous retirement, filled with new adventures, relaxation, and cherished moments with family and friends.

With deepest appreciation,

Sudhiranjan Lahiri Mahavidyalaya, Majdia
